

While CDs and bonds have recently offered attractive yields, the likelihood of future rate cuts has added a layer of uncertainty for income investors. The Hartford Balanced Income Fund Class A—available with no upfront sales charge for investments of $250,000 or more—offers the opportunity to not only tailor an income stream to meet future needs, but also grow your investment regardless of how much interest rates move.

Unpredictable Income

12-Month CD

CDs create income that fluctuates with interest rates. Rolling over a CD to the current rate leads to an unpredictable income stream that may not keep up with the higher cost of goods and services.

Total Income Received: .....	$35,200
Value of Investment on 12/31/25: .....	$250,000

Flat Income, No Growth

10-Year US Treasury Bond

Treasury bonds provide a stable source of income over a fixed number of years. However, there's no guarantee that the same rate will be available when the bond matures and money needs to be reinvested.

Rising Income With Growth Potential

By establishing a systematic withdrawal plan—taking $10,000 and increasing by 5% annually to adjust for inflation—you would have received more total income and grown the overall value of your investment.

Hypothetical investment examples and the results for other time periods could differ substantially from that shown above. CD rate is based on the average 12-month CD rate at 12/31/16 and each December 31 thereafter. Bonds are based on a 2.48% coupon rate of the 10-year Treasury Bond at 12/31/16 and assumes the bond is held until maturity. Hartford Balanced Income Fund assumes a systematic withdrawal plan. The increasing amounts withdrawn do not represent dividends or income, but rather the proceeds from Fund shares sold. The ending value of the Hartford Balanced Income Fund assumes the continued reinvestment of dividends and capital gains and is for illustrative purposes only. Negative fund performance could result in the loss of the initial investment. Sources: Morningstar, Bloomberg, FactSet and Hartford Funds, 1/26.

Investments of $250,000 or more in Class A shares may be made with no front-end sales charge but may be subject to a Contingent Deferred Sales Charge (CDSC) of 0.50% if shares are redeemed within 18 months of purchase. The amount of any CDSC is based on the lesser of the original purchase cost or the current market value of the shares being sold and is not charged on shares acquired by reinvesting dividends and capital gains distributions. For additional information on how the CDSC is calculated, please see the Fund's prospectus.
