

John Diehl, CFP®, CLU®, ChFC®

Senior Vice President
Applied Insights

John Diehl has been with The Hartford and Hartford Funds for more than 30 years. He's a Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) and also holds Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU®) and Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC®) designations. As Senior Vice President of Applied Insights, John leads Hartford Funds' research efforts with the MIT AgeLab as well as other thought leaders. He oversees a team of industry experts who translate this research into actionable ideas for financial professionals and their clients across the U.S. John's views on the future of retirement planning have been published in the Wall Street Journal, Financial Planning magazine, and other publications, and he's been a featured guest on CNBC and Bloomberg Television.